A TEENAGER REMEMBERED

School pays tribute after 'tragic' death of 15-year-old Jack

New technique to get rid of flooding
See page 8

A TEENAGER has died after being hit by a lorry in Hartley Wintney on Monday afternoon.

Jack Brown, 15, from Frimley, Surrey, was pronounced dead after being taken to hospital.

Police were called out to the incident just after midday when the white Volvo lorry was travelling northbound on the A30 at Hartford Bridge.

Two men were in the lorry at the time – they have not been arrested, and are being treated as witnesses.

Both men are in their 30s. They were not injured, but were left shaken by the incident.

No other vehicles were involved. The area of the road where the accident occurred was closed for three hours while officers examined the scene.

Jack was a student at Tomlinson School in Frimley, which released a statement about his death on Tuesday.

It read: "The school is sad to confirm the deeply upsetting news that one of our students, Jack Brown, was tragically killed in a road traffic collision on Monday."

"Our thoughts and prayers are

By James Booker
news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

with his family and friends at this most difficult of times."

Officers are investigating the cause of the incident, and are appealing for anyone with information to come forward.

Investigating officer Acting Sergeant Martin Mundy of Hampshire Constabulary's Roads Policing Unit (RPU) said: "We're most grateful to all the emergency services and members of the public who provided assistance and first aid in the aftermath of this collision.

"I'd also like to thank motorists and pedestrians for their patience and understanding while part of the A30 was closed for around three hours during a forensic examination of the collision scene.

"We're continuing to appeal for more witnesses who may have seen the collision or the events immediately before the impact between the lorry and the pedestrian."

Witnesses or anyone with information are asked to contact the Roads Policing Unit at Whitchurch by phoning 101 and quoting Operation Bandrake, or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

'95 per cent' get top school choice

OVER 95 per cent of children in Hampshire have been offered a place at their first preference secondary school, the county council has announced.

It means that 12,098 out of 12,702 applications to a preferred secondary school were successful, with 99.2 per cent given a place at one of their top three schools.

However, this is slightly lower than last year's statistics, when 96.2 per cent of children secured a place at their preferred school, and 99.5 per cent got a place in their top three.

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

Applications are processed by the county council, and the news comes after the budget was agreed that includes almost £150million of investment to create thousands of new places in the next three years.

Cllr Peter Edgar, Hampshire County Council's executive member for education, said: "Once again we have been able to offer a high number of pupils a place at their preferred secondary school and that's great news."

"I understand there will be some disappointment for the few parents who did not secure a place at one of their chosen schools.

"But this is a very small number, with just 107 out of nearly 13,000 pupils across the county [not getting a top-three choice].

"There are always individual schools that experience exceptionally high demand, and I see this as a credit to the high standard of teaching at these schools."

Pupils whose application to their preferred schools was unsuccessful will be allocated a place at their nearest available school.

Parents have the right to appeal and can put their child's name on the waiting list if a place does become available.

The admissions team is now processing applications for primary school places, with offers due to be sent out on April 16.

Cllr Edgar added: "Demand for primary school places is growing, along with the rising population, and Hampshire County Council is working hard to increase capacity at primary schools in areas where demand is highest."

"With the recent to invest some £149million in primary school infrastructure by 2017, we can continue to work towards our objective to provide quality education locally."

Children's charity in 15th anniversary celebrations

A BASINGSTOKE charity dedicated to changing the lives of children in India and Bangladesh is celebrating its 15th anniversary this month.

Mark and Julie Thomas set up Child's Trust in 1999 after the memory of a trip there changed their lives.

A woman living in poverty on the streets offered the couple her baby to be cared for, an image that prompted them to try and make a difference.

Now, the charity directly supports around 150 children by making contributions in the form of food, water, shelter and education.

They estimate that it has impacted on 1,000 children's lives in India (where the charity currently runs six projects) and, more recently, Bangladesh (two). They are holding a special exhibition at Buckskin Evangelical Church on March 22 for people to find out about the charity and the work it does.

Child's Trust are now pioneering a scheme called 'House of Hope'. The scheme supports a small family to take in and adopt up to 10 orphans (who have no relatives to care for them) and raise them as their own.

The event in Buckskin includes an exhibition of Indian artefacts, a presentation from the charity founders and Indian snack and English desserts.

Call the CT office on 01256 324328 if you would like to

Old clothes wanted for air ambulance

HAMPSHIRE and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance is asking residents to consider using yellow clothing banks when it comes to recycling clothes, as the garments will help raise money for the charity.

The air ambulance is working with recycling partner Bag It Up Ltd, who collect unwanted shoes and textiles and convert them into money for the service.

Even worn-out shoes and damaged clothes can be used, so the charity is asking residents to recycle rather than throw away.

An increasing number of yellow textile banks are being installed across Hampshire, including at Inkinit in Basingstoke and at Chineham Church.

John Perry, chief executive of Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance, said: "We would like to remind people that supporting your air ambulance can be achieved in many ways.

"Just by choosing to use our textile banks to recycle your clothing is a great place to start."

The air ambulance relies on public donations in order to continue to operate, and needs in excess of £125,000 every month.

Since July 2007, Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance has flown nearly 5,000 missions, and flies an average of two or three times a day.

'Stoke's celebs get down and doodling!

Area's sports awards shortlist announced

FIFTY-FOUR nominees have been shortlisted for this year's Hampshire and Isle of Wight Sports Awards, including 12 from Basingstoke.

Over 200 athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, teams and clubs were put forward for an award, before being whittled down to the 54 remaining contenders.

Those up for awards from Basingstoke include 14-year-old ice skater Danielle Harrison, who recently travelled to Sarajevo to perform at Torvill and Dean's 30th anniversary show.

She and athletics star Kierra Barker have been nominated for the Junior Sportswoman award, while Basingstoke Gymnastics Club will be hoping to win in the Club of the Year category.

Alice Weaving is a nominee for Junior Volunteer, and karate experts Lindsey Andrews and Mark Nevola are up for the Master Sportsperson award.

Rachel Hessom has been nominated for Outstanding Personal Achievement, with Andrea Marratt being featured in the Participation Coach category.

Anne Bidmead and Bryan Andrews are both up for the Performance Coach award, while Lynn Brastock is nominated for Senior Volunteer and Brian Donegan for Service to Sport for his work in gymnastics.

The winners will be announced at a ceremony at Southampton's St Mary's Stadium on April 2.

BASINGSTOKE actors Ian McNeice and Sam Attwater are among a number of famous faces taking part in this year's National Doodle Day, to raise money for national charity Epilepsy Action.

Their sketches will be auctioned on eBay tomorrow, along with drawings from other luminaries including Sir Michael Parkinson, Bill Nighy and Jackie Collins, to help support 13,000 people across Hampshire with epilepsy.

National Doodle Day, supported by publishers Dodo Pad, aim to get as many people doodling as possible to help raise awareness for the condition.

Philippa Cartwright, fundraising events manager at Epilepsy Action, said: "Every year we are overwhelmed with the positive support that we receive from celebrities and members of the public alike.

"The celebrity doodle auction is always a terrific success, raising thousands of pounds in much-needed funds for Epilepsy Action.

"The highest-grossing doodle ever raised £1,600 alone, so this event really does make a huge difference to people

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

with epilepsy and their families."

National Doodle Day first began 11 years ago, and over 1,200 celebrities, including Mary Berry, Rita Ora and Sophie Dahl, have taken part since then.

Members of the public can also help by creating their own masterpiece and donating a pound to Epilepsy Action.

A number of prizes are on offer, including arts and crafts vouchers and custom-made 3D doodles.

Around one in every 100 people in the UK are affected by epilepsy, and 87 people are diagnosed every day. More information about the charity can be found at www.epilepsy.org.uk, or to find out more about National Doodle Day, go to www.nationaldoodleday.org.uk

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want.

"Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough times, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

What our customers think

"My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power. None of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it.

It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it!

He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should have closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing!"

Cheers,
Clive Baldwin

Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that was not activated at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price!

These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone!

Chris H
Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

BDBC freezes tax in borough for fifth year

Alton gets regular mobile chemotherapy unit

The mobile chemotherapy unit will now be at Alton on a regular basis

A MOBILE chemotherapy unit will regularly visit Alton from today, after a series of sporadic visits over the last two years.

The unit is a joint project between cancer charity Hope for Tomorrow and the county's health trust.

Now, the £260,000 vehicle, which can deliver up to 3,000 treatments per year, will be a regular feature at The Maltings Centre.

The unit, launched in August 2012, is named Amy after the great-great-granddaughter of Hope for Tomorrow supporter Lord March.

It is owned and maintained by the charity and operated by the Foundation Trust.

Hampshire Hospitals chief executive Mary Edwards said:

"We are very grateful to Hope for Tomorrow for providing the Hampshire Hospitals Mobile Chemotherapy Unit and helping us expand the service and care we can offer to patients and their families."

"The unit allows patients to receive their chemotherapy closer to home and helps us in achieving our goal to provide excellent patient care locally where possible and central where necessary."

"We have established that there are patients who will be appropriate to use the unit in Alton instead of needing to travel to our hospitals and we are extremely pleased to be able to provide this service in a further location."

BASINGSTOKE and Deane Borough Council (BDBC) has frozen council tax in the borough for the fifth year running, it announced in its budget proposals last week.

This keeps the cost of Band D property tax at £104, the lowest in the county.

The public realm in central Basingstoke is to receive £3.7million, while the authority will introduce free parking to areas of Top of the Town, and has created an economic development reserve of £750,000.

BDBC has also pledged to inject £500,000 into promoting Basingstoke as a business destination, while a further £250,000 is being used for rural development schemes.

Speaking at the BDBC budget meeting on February 27, council leader Clive Sanders reiterated the importance of leisure facilities in the borough.

Cllr Sanders pledged that the serving administration will continue to back and maintain these facilities for residents in the borough.

"A thriving local economy both in Basingstoke and across the borough is vital to improve the quality of life for residents," said Cllr Sanders.

"Creating more jobs for local people is key to the future delivery of the facilities we want;

Council leader Clive Sanders transport, shopping, sport, leisure and entertainment.

"The facilities that make a real difference to the daily lives of our residents."

"This budget balances the need to deal compassionately with today's problems with the need to forge a long term future for the borough based on ambition and a determination to succeed."

"It delivers on our promise to offer all our ordinary hard working residents a place to call home with a bright, exciting future for themselves and for their children. A future of lower bills, more jobs and better facilities."

Brothers are spared jail after neglect of ponies

TWO men have been spared jail by Basingstoke magistrates after causing unnecessary suffering to two Shetland ponies.

Brothers Matthew and David Twigg, from Andover, admitted the charges after RSPCA inspectors called on their property following a tip-off about the ponies' welfare.

The two ponies, 25-year-old Merlin and 15-year-old Hobby, could not walk due to their hooves being so severely overgrown.

Basingstoke Magistrates' Court was told that X-rays in both animals later showed that the pedal bone in each of their feet had started to disintegrate due to chronic laminitis.

Both were put to sleep to end their suffering.

RSPCA inspector Will Hendry said: "The situation for the ponies when we got to their stable was hopeless."

"They had been suffering chronically for up to five years and yet nobody, either within the family or without, thought to get them any help or pain relief."

Matthew, 56, was given a custodial sentence of five weeks suspended for 12 months.

David, 47, was ordered to do 65 hours of unpaid work after pleading guilty to causing unnecessary suffering to the ponies.

They were also ordered to pay £2,726.94 in court costs.

NORTH Hampshire Medical Fund has welcomed a £5k boost to its Pinpoint Appeal from AWE towards funds for breakthrough radiotherapy equipment.

Cancer survivor and AWE scientist, Dr Alison Baxter recommended that AWE give to the Pinpoint Appeal, which has been tasked with raising £450,000 for a state-of-the-art CT scanner for the new £5million radiotherapy unit at Basingstoke Hospital.

Alison was diagnosed with grade three breast cancer in November 2012.

After having a lump removed she began chemotherapy and subsequently radiotherapy.

However, because there was no radiotherapy provision at her local hospital in Basingstoke, Alison was forced to make the daily trip to Southampton for four weeks where she received the care she needed.

Alison said: "Travelling to Southampton for radiotherapy treatment was time-consuming, tiring and expensive. But it could have been much worse. I was lucky enough to not rely on public transport.

By James Booker

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

"It was for this reason me and my friends decided that in 2013 we would raise money for the North Hampshire Medical Fund Pinpoint appeal.

"After my treatment finished in mid-August I started to fundraise with my friends and family, taking on a sponsored bike ride, making cakes, biscuits and pickles, doing a Christmas raffle, and getting money from a swear box.

"In all we have raised around £2,000, but money is still coming in. I was delighted that AWE decided to embrace my passion for this charity and donate £5k to the new scanner.

"For local Basingstoke residents this unit will make so much difference to their cancer treatment.

"It will reduce the stress of travelling for treatment at what can be an incredibly stressful time."

The new radiotherapy unit will open in the grounds of the Basingstoke hospital in spring.

The unit enables radiotherapy to be delivered with pinpoint accuracy, so that the treatment, side-effects and peripheral damage to organs and tissues will be significantly reduced.

Tricia Monro, fund manager for the North Hampshire Medical Fund said: "The contribution of £5,000 from AWE has been critical in getting us to the finishing line for our Pinpoint Appeal. We are immensely grateful to Alison Baxter for nominating the Medical Fund.

"It will make a huge difference to many in our community."

County's services unite in pioneering agreement 'H3'

A PIONEERING deal will see the county council, fire service and police combine their services in order to save millions of pounds.

The public partnership, called H3, first came into effect on February 1, and will be equally governed by all three organisations.

It is hoped the arrangement, the first of its type in England, will save £4million per year, with powers being phased in until November.

Simon Hayes, Police and Crime Commissioner for Hampshire, said: "H3 will deliver key support to three of the county's largest public bodies.

"With continued pressures on public finances, we have to work together to find new ways of operating, and this programme aims to deliver the best value corporate services to Hampshire's communities, in a modern, efficient and effective way.

As part of the collaboration, an Integrated Business Centre (IBC), to deliver HR, procurement, finance and payroll functions, is already being implemented. Other initiatives to combine the other services are also underway.

Councillor Roy Perry, leader of Hampshire County Council, said: "We are transforming and modernising the way we work to find new ways of delivering more with less, while locking in quality and greater value for money.

Royton Smith, Chairman of the Hampshire Fire and Rescue Authority, added: "By reducing the cost of delivering our combined support functions, not only will we increase our flexibility and protect local services, but we will also be able to improve the quality of those services for the residents."

Tony Nicholson, chairman of HIO-WAA, said: "The trustees are committed to a path of continuous development and this move is the next step."

"Everything that helps our crews to deliver this vital service has to be good news for all those who depend on us."

Fresh efforts to banish the floods

By James Booker

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

A TRIAL is underway on an innovative pumping scheme that could help reduce flood water in Basingstoke.

The pumping plan has been developed by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council (BDBC), Hampshire Fire and Rescue, the Environment Agency and Hampshire County Council, as the first phase of a scheme that could reduce flood water in Buckskin.

Work began last week to trial pumping the ground water from around the West Ham electricity substation on Worting Road.

The fire service's high volume pump will drain flood water from around the substation, taking it along over one kilometre of hose to the River Loddon.

One of the pumps can move 7,000 litres of water per minute, and such machines have been deployed around the country to help relieve flood-hit areas.

The Environment Agency has given the go-ahead to the scheme after looking at the existing water flows in the river.

Water levels will be continuously monitored during the trial to ensure that pumping can be stopped if there is any risk of the river overtopping its banks.

* The pioneering pumping scheme is being carried out in Buckskin

If this trial is successful, it is possible a similar approach can be used to try to remove the water from the flooded areas of Buckskin, where 80 houses had to be evacuated.

However, it would be more complicated as it would be necessary to filter the water and set up a series of pipes and high volume pumps.

Experts have predicted that given the high level of the water table in the area, doing nothing could mean that water levels might not go down until around April.

The council's chief executive Tony Curtis said: "We have committed to doing everything we can to help people in Buckskin who are living in appalling conditions or have been forced to leave their houses and live in temporary accommodation.

"The water will not go down by itself as the water table is so high and the ground is saturated.

"Tankering the water away is only having a limited benefit.

We hope that the trial will be successful so that we can look at how it could be used to help give the residents more hope of the water levels going down in the near future."

Council leader Cllr Clive Sanders said he has "every admiration for the resilience and fortitude of the people of Buckskin".

BASINGSTOKE police are investigating after a man walked into another person's house, before leaving without a word after being challenged.

The man, in his late 20s or early 30s and was wearing a white baseball cap, left the house when the victim spoke to him.

Anyone with any information or who may have been in the area at the time is asked to get in touch with PC Hall at Basingstoke police station on 101 or via the website www.hampshire.police.uk.

Council wants to 'cut the cost of politics'

BASINGSTOKE and Deane Borough Council have announced plans to ask the public about 'cutting the cost of politics'.

The Conservative-run council said it wanted to consult with the borough's residents about changing the format of local elections.

Instead of the current format of a third of members up for election three out of four years, all councillors would be elected once every four years.

BDBC council leader, Councillor Clive Sanders, feels this would result in a significant money-saver for the borough's tax payers.

"It is all very well to talk about saving tax payers' money but so far we have missed an obvious saving: tackling the cost of politics," said Cllr Sanders.

"We need to listen to the views of our residents and ask if they believe, like we do, that we should be cutting the cost of politics."

"A recent review by our peers strongly recommended we move to four-yearly elections and the first step I will take towards that is asking out residents if that's what they want."

"This Conservative administration has saved £8.4million through efficiencies but it's time we look not just at our staff but at ourselves."

However, Labour group leader Laura James said: "The only rea-

By James Booker

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

son the Tories want four yearly elections is a desperate attempt to try and cling on to power for as long as possible."

"This is a complete red herring," she said.

"Most years there are other elections taking place anyway, last year there were county council elections, this year it's European Parliamentary elections and next year are Westminster elections."

"With the borough council elections simply being added to these existing elections barely costs anything extra at all."

Lib Dem group leader Gavin James added: "Using money as an argument to have less councillors and less elections is a dangerous journey to go on. Reducing the size of councillors will risk a greater disconnect between what the Council does and the people it does it for."

Janice is Lib Dem choice

• Janice Spalding

BASINGSTOKE Liberal Democrats have chosen their parliamentary candidate for next year's general election to go up against Conservative MP Maria Miller.

Janice Spalding, an IT project manager who has lived in Bramley for 14 years, will stand for the Basingstoke seat in May next year.

Having worked in the utility industry in the past, Janice has said she wants increased investment in green energy, such as solar, hydro-electric and wind power.

She said: "Lib Dems in government have been leading from the front, investing in apprenticeships for our young people and promoting green growth – both vital for creating a stronger local economy."

At the 2010 general elections, Liberal Democrat candidate John Shaw received 24.5 per cent of the vote, while Ms Miller was elected with 50.5 per cent of the vote.

Mr Shaw, who is also chair of Basingstoke Liberal Democrats, said: "I'm absolutely delighted to have Janice as our prospective parliamentary candidate."

Hospital workers 'are satisfied with support'

HOSPITAL staff in Basingstoke appear highly satisfied with the backing they receive from superiors, giving them confidence to go the extra mile for the patients they care for.

Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) workers recently completed a national survey, asking whether they were pleased with their working environment.

The trust's chief executive Mary Edwards said: "We are one of the largest employers in the region, with around 5,000 staff in clinical and support roles.

"Our staff are fundamental to our ability to deliver excellent care to our patients, and it is important we support them and enable them to develop their expertise.

"We are not complacent and we know there are some areas we could improve, for instance avoiding staff working long hours or feeling stressed."

HHFT is one of the top 20 per cent of similar NHS trusts for the amount of staff agreeing they had never experienced physical violence or discrimination from the public or colleagues.

Meanwhile, Monday was NHS Change Day, which saw NHS staff pledging to change one thing about how they work to make a difference to patients.

By James Booker
news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

The day, now in its second year, is a grass-roots campaign where NHS staff can pledge to do small things that will add up to a positive outcome.

Staff at HHFT have made different pledges which range from simplifying the language they use to encouraging colleagues to give blood.

Senior Operational Services Manager Melissa Way used NHS Change Day to inspire colleagues to spend some time with dementia patients.

"We already have a cohort of dementia volunteers who give up their time to befriend and support our patients who have dementia, but what we'd like to do is encourage more of our colleagues to spend lunch breaks with our dementia patients.

"It would give the patients some company and cheer their day. Staff will benefit too - sitting with dementia patients and talking with them will give our colleagues a better understanding of the challenges they face and a better idea of how to help them overcome them.

"And, of course, I'm sure our staff will have a great time doing it too."

Brand new health centre for Basingstoke

A NEW private health centre has been set up to offer diagnosis and treatment to Basingstoke and surrounding areas.

The Candover Clinic is located in a new purpose-built facility on the Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital site, and is funded by the Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust.

Its profits are reinvested in local NHS care, and is complemented by a 22-bed inpatient ward and diagnostic suite at the site.

Kevin Harris, clinical director of Candover Clinic, said: "Candover exists to provide care and choice to local people who are privately insured or self-funding.

"Our facilities set a new standard in private health care and create much needed competition in the area.

"Our consultant-led approach and the fact we are independent means that we only ever consider your health and wellbeing when making decisions about your care."

The mysteries of the water world

"AN UNDERWATER murder mystery". That is, in Jeremy Wade's words, what River Monsters is all about.

Fans of the show will remember man-sized piranhas, fish that electrocute and the most recent insight of how a Greenland shark could have been mistaken for the Loch Ness Monster.

And now avid viewers have the chance to meet Jeremy in person as River Monsters goes on a UK tour this March, stopping off at The Haymarket in Basingstoke next Thursday.

Jeremy says 'River Monsters Face-to-Face' is an opportunity for people to see more than what is shown on TV and to learn about his life as an explorer.

A keen angler at a young age, he rediscovered his love for fresh water fishing through travelling and writing after studying biology.

He lists a plane crash in the Amazon just over 10 years ago, where the engine cut out over the forest, causing the aircraft to crash into a tree, as his most "dramatic experience".

"I lost a lot of sleep for a few weeks just going over how that might have ended differently," Jeremy said. "You don't want too many experiences like that."

So what is it about freshwater fishing that is so exciting, yet has a sense of the unknown?

"The fascination for me with freshwater is that although it is closer to us, I feel that rivers are more mysterious than the sea," the 57-year-old said.

"It comes down to the simple matter that in rivers there is poor visibility.

"I think there is a common perception that scientists know exactly what lives in water, how big they grow, and actually they don't."

"There is real sense of discovery, for seeing things for the first time, and bringing things to television for the first time."

And what about the frightful piranhas, catfish and bull sharks we have seen on the show?

"Fear is actually a useful emotion," Jeremy added.

"In terms of the fish, in most cases, that is what I am least worried about.

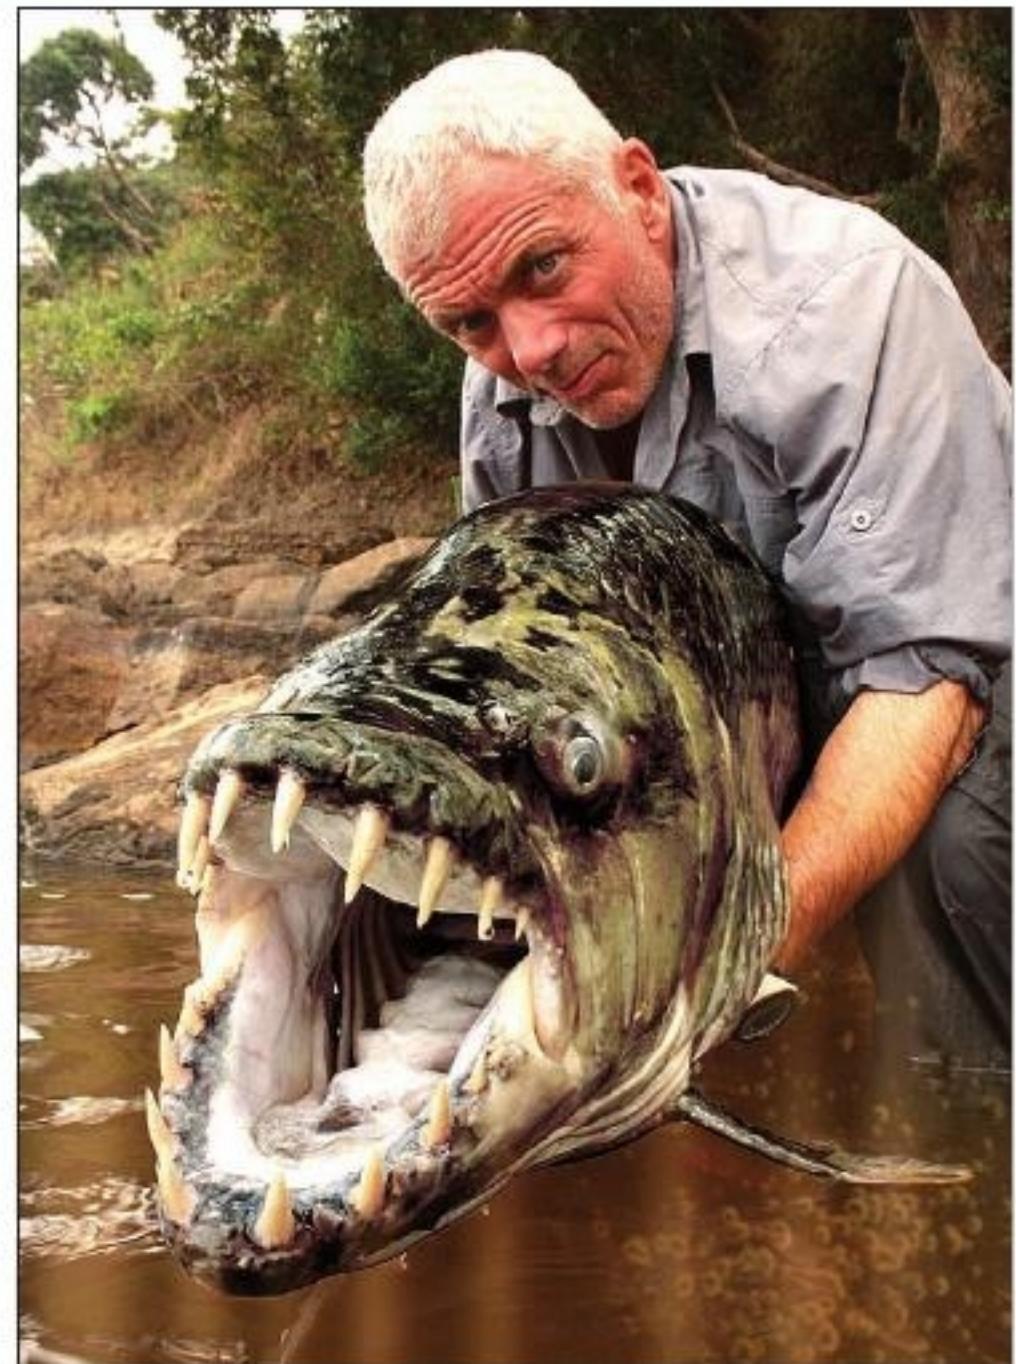

"It is more the stuff that takes you by surprise.

"For instance, our sound recorder was hit by lightning in Suriname in South America, and that just came out of the blue."

"A little bit of insecurity adds very nicely to the programmes."

"We don't want the places to seem completely benign, they need to be challenging but not to the point where it is getting out of hand and people are genuinely in danger."

Tickets cost £19 for a 7.30pm start. For more information, go to www.anvilarts.org.uk.

Something different

FIVE-PIECE folk group Mawkin, formed by brothers Jamie and David Delarre, comes to The Forge in Basingstoke on Saturday evening.

The group have been performing since 2002, and were nominated for a BBC Folk Award following the release of their debut album 'The Awkward Recruit' in 2009.

Mawkin return to The Forge after they previously performed at the venue in 2010, and this time will be playing from material they hope to use in an upcoming album.

"Basically it's a step in a different direction for us," said David. "The process we usually do is hide away in a studio for several months, write the album, record the album, and then release and tour it."

"This time we decided instead of writing the material, then recording it and touring, we thought we'd write the material and road test it first."

"So half the set will be new that hasn't been played out at all, which is going to be quite brave of us!"

David and James are joined in the band by Lee Richardson on drums, bass player Danny Crump and Nick Cooke on the melodeon.

Speaking about working with his brother, David said: "It's got its upsides and downsides!

"It's a pleasure playing with him every night, there's a connection there which there isn't with other musicians who aren't related to you."

"We've been playing together since I was eight-years-old, so 20 years now, and I think that's a nice thing to be adding to the performance."

"Obviously there's the downside that we sometimes rub each other up the wrong way, but that's just like any brothers!"

Saturday's show begins at 7.30pm, and tickets cost £14.50. Go to www.anvilarts.org.uk or call 01256 844244 to book.

The Alpine Symphony, scored for a vast orchestra, recounts a mountaineering adventure in entertaining detail.

Undoubtedly the definitive editions of the band's catalogue, each release will come with original artwork, high-quality new packaging, exclusive bonus audio, extra tracks plus new sleeve notes. These superb packages will also include new interviews with Cast frontman John Power.

Focus on the new Ford

FORD Motor Company have revealed the advanced new Focus at this week's Geneva Show – the first European Ford to offer the voice-activated in-car connectivity system SYNC 2.

SYNC 2 is among a suite of life-enhancing new technologies making their European debut.

Ford's advanced in-car connectivity system features a high-resolution, eight-inch colour touch screen and advanced voice control for easier access to audio, navigation, climate control and compatible mobile phones. SYNC 2's navigation system also offers a split-screen display for the first time in Europe with detailed intersections, spoken street names, 3D highway junction and landmark views, plus the MICHELIN Guide and MICHELIN Green Guide.

SYNC features in more than eight million Ford vehicles since being launched in the U.S. in 2007. SYNC 2, the second generation of the system, is more intuitive and enables drivers to issue simpler "one-shot" navigation destinations. Pushing the voice control button and saying "I'm hungry" will bring up a list of local restaurants, for example.

REVIEW: FORD FOCUS
By Andy Allans

The new Ford Focus elevates the world's best-selling nameplate with a bolder, more emotive exterior design, a finely crafted, intuitive new interior, and major fuel economy improvements.

"Not satisfied with being number one, we wanted to blow people away with a stunning new version of the Focus that would build on this car's reputation for introducing advanced technology," said Stephen Odell, president of Ford of Europe, Middle East and Africa.

"New Focus will enable people to switch seamlessly between touch screen and voice commands, and also to control more in-car systems than ever before, while keeping their eyes on the road and their hands on the wheel."

The new Focus is the first Ford to offer Perpendicular Parking, a new hands-free parking technology that helps drivers reverse into spaces alongside other cars.

The current Focus introduced the parallel parking aid Active Park Assist that, at the push of a button, uses ultrasonic sensors to locate parking spaces and steer the vehicle while the driver controls the accelerator and brake.

The addition of two new sensors to the rear of the new Focus enables Perpendicular Parking to operate in the same way.

New Focus will also be offered with Ford's MyKey technology for the first time. MyKey enables owners to programme a key – usually for younger drivers – that restricts the top speed, reduces the maximum volume of the audio system, and can disable it altogether if driver and passengers are not using safety belts.

The improved Adaptive Front Lighting System adjusts the beams of the new Bi-Xenon HID headlamps to best suit the road layout. The system assesses the ambient light surrounding a vehicle, as well as objects in the road ahead and then adjusts the headlight beam angle and intensity to one of seven settings depending on the vehicle's speed, steering angle and distance to an object in front.

* The Ford Focus

At high speeds, such as on a motorway, the headlights are raised to project a longer, straighter beam for visibility further ahead; in towns where speeds are lower and street lighting more intense, the beam spreads out downwards for more intense illumination of the road immediately ahead. When cornering at lower speeds, the system projects a beam towards the side of the road to make cyclists and pedestrians more visible.

The new Focus takes the model's fun-to-drive personality up a level with enhanced handling and steering, and also offers significantly improved fuel efficiency on many versions thanks to new powertrain options.

The new Ford Focus will go on sale in Europe in the second half of 2014.

Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough times, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

Look at our Opening Times!

Mon to Fri: 7am - 8pm, Sat: 8am - 1pm

What our customers think

• My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it.

It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it!

He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing!

Cheers,
Clive Baldwin

• Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that was not activated at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price!

These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone!

Chris H
• Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

Whitchurch and Tadley secure points

WHITCHURCH United earned their first league point since January, after a 1-1 draw with Folland Sports in the Wessex Premier Division on Tuesday night.

Issac Sedu was on target for the Jam Boys to score the team's first point since a 3-0 victory against Downton on January 11 following numerous postponements.

They remain ninth in the table following Tuesday's game, with 47 points from 27 games.

Elsewhere, Tadley Calleva returned to action in style, as a 2-1 win against Ringwood Town on Saturday was followed by a 2-0 victory away to Andover New Street on Tuesday.

Calleva have jumped to seventh in the Wessex First Division standings as a result with 28 points, four behind next-placed Pewsey Vale.

Despite the recent improvement in weather, Hartley Wintney's game against Camberley Town was called off on Saturday, and they are 15th in the Combined Counties Premier standings.

Wintney will hope to be in action tonight when they host Epsom and Ewell, before making the trip to Mole Valley SCR on Saturday.

Whitchurch travel to Isle of Wight side Newport at the weekend, while Calleva are away to Petersfield Town.

Basingstoke are looking over their shoulders after latest setback

BASINGSTOKE RFC are now just four points above the relegation zone in the National League 3 London and South East, after they lost 29-14 away to Hertford on Saturday.

It took 15 minutes for Hertford to break the deadlock, with Bison remained top of the English Ice Hockey Premier League after the weekend's matches, following two victories in two days against Slough Jets.

Saturday's match in Basingstoke resulted in a 6-2 win for Bison, with four of their goals coming in the final period.

Miroslav Vantroba opened the scoring for Bison at 11:26, but despite the home side firing 21 shots at Jets netminder Andrej Vasiljevic, it was the only goal of the opening 20 minutes.

The Jets equalised less than two minutes into the second period through Alan Lack, but Bison restored their lead as Ciaran Long buried a penalty shot at 31:51.

But four third-period goals for Bison transformed the game, starting with Joe Rand's effort over Vasiljevic into the net.

Captain Nicky Chinn added another at 46:16, before Jets briefly retaliated as Lack scored his second of the match.

With just over a minute remaining and the score at 4-2, Jets pulled forward Vasiljevic for an extra attacker, but it paved the way for Tomas Karpov to score an open goal at 59:20.

Then with one second left on the clock, Stuart Mogg grabbed a sixth, assisted by Danny Ingoldsby.

A four-point weekend was completed in Slough on Sunday, as Bison won the match 4-2.

There were no goals in the first period, but Karpov and Aaron Connolly both got on the scoresheet in the second to give Bison a two-goal cushion.

Marek Tvrdek managed to pull one back for the Jets, before player-coach Doug Sheppard restored the visitors' advantage at the second buzzer.

Tvrdek got a second in the third period, but a powerplay goal from Connolly wrapped up the points and a second win in as many days.

After the weekend's games, Bison were level on 70 points with Manchester Phoenix, who were in action against Peterborough Phantoms last night.

Bison were also competing last night, as they lined up to face Milton Keynes Lightning in the first leg of the EPL cup as the Observer went to press.

Sport Bites

Goodall glory

BASINGSTOKE tennis ace Josh Goodall has won his first tournament of the year, taking the victory at the Aegon British Tour event in Corby.

A comfortable 6-2, 6-3 win against Buckinghamshire's Toby Martin gave Goodall the win in the final, which was played on February 22.

The number one seed was given a bye in the first round, and beat Chris Morrow, Joe Woolley, Alexis Canter and Robbie Ridout on his way to the final.

Joy for Joyce!

YOUNG snooker star Mickey Joyce has reached the last 16 of the England Under-14 Snooker Championship, to be played in Leeds on April 12.

Ten-year-old Mickey, from Winklebury, came second in his group at the Southern Qualifier event in Swindon.

It comes after Mickey completed his first half-century break in January, scoring a 54 in the Eastleigh and District Under-18 League.

Cricket fixtures

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants Cricket Club have been given a home tie in their opening fixture of this year's Southern Electric Twenty20 Cup, and are set to face Fair Oak.

Hartley Wintney will host New Milton, while Hook and Newnham Basics make the trip to Havant.

The first round games take place on June 8, with the final at the Ageas Bowl on August 15.

DRAGONS SEAL CUP FINAL SPOT

Bristow hails his players after last minute Matthews goal sinks Boro

JASON Bristow praised the professionalism of his players after their Hampshire Cup semi-final victory over Gosport Borough on Tuesday.

Robbie Matthews was the hero for the Dragons as his last-minute winner secured a 3-2 victory for Bristow's team.

Simon Dunn's fine curling effort and a Jordace Holder-Spooner penalty had Basingstoke comfortably 2-0 up at half-time.

However, their hosts rallied, and Rory Williams struck twice in nine second half minutes to set up a nervy final quarter of the game.

But the Dragons held their nerve and will now take on Havant and Waterlooville in the final at Portsmouth's Fratton Park.

"We just about deserved in the end!" said a relieved Bristow. "At 2-0, you would expect us to go on and win, but credit to Gosport, they didn't lie down."

"It's a cup match, there's nothing to lose and they threw everything at us in the second half."

"But credit to us as well - we responded in a positive way, and I think we were in control in the last 20 minutes even though they'd equalised."

Basingstoke drew 2-2 at the Camrose against Maidenhead on Saturday, having thrown away a two-goal lead, but that lightning, despite threatening, failed to strike twice in four days.

"There's a good camaraderie among the lads," added the Dragons' boss. "I don't think the setback on Saturday would have affected them too much."

"They're good professionals, and go out in the next game and deal with what we have to deal with."

"And we had to deal with a good Gosport side coming at us in the second half."

The Hampshire Cup final, Stoke's first in six years, is the culmination of a very solid campaign in the trophy by Bristow's team.

"We've always said from day one that we want to go and win it," he said. "It's important for the players, supporters and the officials of the club to be involved in."

"We've been strong in every round. There's been a few games that have come at good times for us when we've been stronger in the league."

"Credit to the players for getting the result and getting us to the final. But we have to put that behind us for now and get back to the league."

In the league, Basingstoke face a trip to Farnborough tonight, without skipper Wes Daly (knee) and Shaun McAuley (ribs). Neil Barrett (hamstring) is also a doubt.
